SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

13 JUL (Monday):

SAINT HENRY, Holy Roman Emperor (972-1024)

("Good King") Henry became Duke of Bavaria upon his father's death, and ascended to the throne of Germany in 1002. He was later crowned King of Pavia, Italy and became Holy Roman Emperor in 1014, the last of the Saxon dynasty of emperors. Henry founded schools, quelled rebellions, protected the frontiers, worked to establish a stable peace in Europe, and to reform the Church while respecting its independence.

14 JUL (Tuesday):

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA, Virgin (1656-1680)

Kateri was born near the town of Auriesville, NY, the daughter of a Mohawk warrior. She converted to Christianity as a teenager, and her baptism at age 20 incurred the hostility of her tribe. She went to the new Christian colony of Indians in Canada and there lived a life dedicated to prayer, penitential practices, and care for the sick and aged. Kateri is known as the Lily of the Mohawks. She was declared venerable by the Catholic Church in 1943 and she was Beatified in 1980. Her decess of canonization was promulgated by Pope Benedict XVI in 2011. Kateri Tekakwitha is the first Native American to be canonized. She is the patroness of the environment and ecology.

16 JUL (Thursday):

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Sacred Scripture celebrates the beauty of Carmel, where the prophet

Elijah defended the purity of Israel's faith in the living God. In the 12th century, hermits withdrew to that mountain and later founded the Carmelite Order, devoted to the contemplative life under the patronage of the Mother of God. The Carmelites celebrated a special Mass and Office in honor of Mary, and in 1726 it became a celebration of the universal Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

MONTHLY EVENING OF RECOLLECTION

The Opus Dei Men's Group has a monthly evening of recollection at Nativity, which is sponsored by the Menlough Study Center (www.menlough.org). They meet on the third Wednesday of the month beginning at 07:30 PM in the Church. You can find more information about Opus Dei at www.opusdei.org.

Your planned donations help us forecast, with confidence, the level of financial support our parish will receive in the year ahead.

Electronic Giving is a way to automate your offerings. It is convenient for you and provides consistency for the church budget. Traditional basket offerings fluctuate significantly from week to week but when contributions are automated, the church receives the funds to carry out its work on a steady, uninterrupted basis.

Please visit the church website at www.nativitymenlo.org and click on the e-Giving link on the left side of the page. You may set up recurring and one-time contributions. Or, if you wish, you may call the office and request a paper authorization form.

It is also a time from bonding and community building with our great family here at church. Please join us. This will be the trip you will talk about until the day you die and see Jesus yourself face to face. REFLECTIONS

ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING: AMOS 7

The person who points out the wrongs others are doing seldom wins any popularity polls. Amos was a poor shepherd and harvester of figs when God called him to be a prophet. When Amos prophesied that Israel's king would be killed and the people sent into exile if they did not repent, he became very unpopular. The priest Amaziah evicted him and told him never to return.

Amos makes it clear that he did not seek the prophet's job. He simply did what God required of him. His story encourages us to be open to the prophets in our midst who call us back to God.

SECOND READING: EPHESIANS 1

Good parents, teachers, and preachers provide us with genuine praise as well as corrective guidance. Saint Paul did both well. In this reading, he helps us count our blessings and recognize our good spiritual qualities. In fact, he assures us that in Christ God has given us every spiritual blessing. These blessings include holiness, goodness, wisdom, and love.

Paul assures us that we are part of God's plan to unite everything in heaven and on earth under Christ's reign. We participate in this plan by using our spiritual gifts for the benefit of all.

GOSPEL: MARK 6

If you and a partner were sent to several different schools to talk about your faith, what worries might you have? When Jesus sent his apostles out two by two, He warned them that some people would not welcome them. He insisted that they take to the road without food or money, trusting in God and the goodness of their hosts. If people would not provide for them or listen to their message, they were to move on to the next place.

But those who accepted the apostles were rewarded. The sick were healed, the possessed were freed of demons, and sinners were reconciled.

PRAYER OF ST. GERTRUDE THE GREAT

Our Lord revealed to St. Gertrude that the following prayer would release 1000 souls from Purgatory each time it was said.

"Eternal Father, I offer You the Most Precious Blood of Your Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen."

SOLEMNITIES, MEMORIALS, AND FEASTS, OH, MY!

Throughout the year we celebrate solemnities, feast days, and memorials (obligatory and optional) to the Blessed Mother, the apostles, saints, and significant events in the life and history of the Church. What is the source of this "calendar", and what is the difference between the types of celebrations?

The reference used by the Church is the Roman Martyrology. You can find a copy on-line at www.breviary.net/martyrology/mart.htm

The martyrology is a catalog of martyrs and saints arranged according to the order of their feasts (usually the day of their death). Since the time when the commemorations of martyrs, to which were added those of bishops, began to be celebrated, each Church had its special martyrology. Little by little these local lists were enriched by names borrowed from neighboring Churches, and when the era of martyrs was definitively closed, those were introduced who had shone in the community by the sanctity of their life and notably by the practice of asceticism.

The difference between the three basic categories resides in their importance, which in turn is reflected in the presence or absence of different liturgical elements.

Solemnities are the highest degree and are usually reserved for the most important mysteries of faith. These include Easter, Pentecost and the Immaculate Conception; the principal titles of Our Lord, such as King and Sacred Heart; and celebrations that honor some saints of particular importance in salvation history, such as Sts. Peter and Paul, and St. John the Baptist on his day of birth. Some solemnities are also holy days of obligation, but these vary from country to country. A solemnity is celebrated if it falls on a Sunday of ordinary time or Christmastide. But it is usually transferred to the following Monday if it falls on a Sunday of Advent, Lent or Easter, or during Holy Week or the Easter octave.

A feast honors a mystery or title of the Lord, of Our Lady, or of saints of particular importance (such as the apostles and Evangelists) and some of historical importance, such as the deacon St. Lawrence.

A memorial is usually of saints but may also celebrate some aspect of the Lord or of Mary. Examples include the optional memorial of the Holy Name of Jesus or the obligatory memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. From the point of view of the liturgical elements there is no difference between the optional and obligatory memorials.
