SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

24 MAY (Tuesday):

DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI, (1253)

Because of the remarkable witness that St. Francis has made to the world, a magnificent church was built in his honor. In 1253 on the 25th of May Pope Innocent IV solemnly consecrated the Church. Seven years later to the day, the remains of Saint Francis were taken from the chapel of Saint George and placed in the new church.

25 MAY (Wednesday):

SAINT BEDE THE VENERABLE (672-735)

Considered the most learned man of his day, Bede was born around the time England was finally Christianized. His writings started the idea of dating our era from the birth of Christ, and our knowledge of the history of England before the 8th century is mainly the result of Bede's writings. He is a Doctor of the Church.

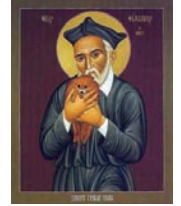

POPE GREGORY VII (1020-1073)

SAINT MARY MAGDALENE DE'PAZZI (1566-1607)

26 MAY (Thursday):

SAINT PHILIP NERI, Priest (1515-1595)

While visiting a Dominican chapel in San Germano, Philip received word in a vision that he had an apostolate in Rome, so he cut himself off from his family and went there. During the Easter season of 1544, while praying in the catacomb of San Sebastiano, he received a vision of a globe of fire that entered his chest, and he experienced an ecstasy that physically enlarged his heart. He would hear confessions by the hour, and could tell penitents their sins before they confessed them. He founded both the Confraternity of the Most Holy Trinity and the Congregation of the Oratory.

27 MAY (Friday):

SAINT AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY, Bishop (d. 605)

Augustine was sent by Pope Gregory the Great along with 40 brother monks to evangelize the British Isles in 597. He established and spread the faith throughout England; one of his earliest converts was King Ethelberht, who brought 10,000 of his people into the Church. He was ordained a bishop in Gaul and became the first Archbishop of Canterbury. Anglican Archbishops of Canterbury today are still referred to as occupying the Chair of Augustine.

MISSION COOPERATION COLLECTION

Next weekend Fr. Joy Alookaran from the Diocese of Tezpur will be here to talk about his diocese, which is in the state of Assam, in northeastern India. The funds from this collection will go to help the tribal people build a permanent primary school in Bhairakund for educating the children and adults there. The literacy rate in this area is very low and the necessity of education is being increasingly felt and understood by the elders. They have repeatedly requested the parish priest and the bishop to open a primary school for their children. They are applying for a permanent structure that will not be damaged in the monsoons. The school will serve a double purpose of educating the children during the day and the adults in the evening. Your generous contributions will certainly benefit the poor tribal children of this remote area. This collection for the Diocese of Tezpur is part of the Archdiocese of San Francisco's Mission Cooperation Program.

CORNER

STREET LIFE MINISTRIES

Street Life Ministries is a community-based non-profit that serves the homeless and at-risk population of Menlo Park and Redwood City. We build environments and relationships where community volunteers can provide food, clothing, housing referral, addiction recovery, and other personal support. For over ten years, Street Life volunteers have met on the streets for people on the streets. Street Life Ministries is operated by passionate people of different Christian traditions who share a common desire to see the message of Jesus lived out in tangible ways. We meet together on the street and believe in helping those in need with the Word of God and a plate of hot food. We need volunteers who are willing to serve, cook meals, or drive our van to deliver to street locations. Our ministry is on Monday and Wednesday in Redwood City, and Tuesday and Thursday at the Menlo Park Train Station from 07:30-09:00 PM each night. Please visit our website, www.streetlifeministries.org, to get descriptions of the services needed, or if you want to contact our volunteer leaders directly please email them:
