SAINTS AND OBSERVANCES

SOLEMNITY, FEAST, MEMORIAL • OPTIONAL MEMORIAL • OTHER

26 SEP (Tuesday):

SAINT COSMAS and SAINT DAMIAN, (d. ~303)

These twin brothers were Syrian-trained doctors. The brothers accepted no payment for their services, and their charity brought many to Christ. They were reported to have miraculously replaced the ulcerated leg of a man named Justinian with one from a recently deceased man. Arrested during the persecutions of Diocletian, they were tortured (without suffering injury) and martyred by beheading.

28 SEP (Thursday):

SAINT WENCESLAUS, Martyr (907-929)

SAINT LORENZO RUIZ and COMPANIONS, Martyrs

29 SEP (Friday):

SAINT MICHAEL, SAINT GABRIEL, SAINT RAPHAEL, Archangels

27 SEP (Wednesday):

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL, Priest (1580-1660)

Like his fellow saint, Francis de Sales, who was his friend and contemporary, Vincent de Paul performed an invaluable service to the Catholic Church in a period of confusion and laxness. For men about to take Holy Orders, Vincent devised a set of spiritual exercises, and special exercises also for those desiring to make general Confession, or to settle on a vocation. To the Biblical injunction, "Thou art thy brother's keeper," he gave new practical meaning, by laying down patterns of philanthropy that have been followed ever since.

30 SEP (Saturday)

ST. JEROME, Priest and Doctor of the Church (342 - 420)

FROM THE HOLY SEE

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS

Each month His Holiness asks for prayer intentions. For September 2017, the Holy Father's prayer intention is:

Intention: Parishes

That our parishes, animated by a missionary spirit, may be places where faith is communicated and charity is seen.

PARISH CONSECRATION: WEEK THREE

Themes are taken from Fr. Michael Gaitley's book: 33 Days to Morning Glory (Marian Press)

SUNDAY

On Sept. 10, 1946, Mother Theresa received a dramatic call to her mission from the Lord. At the heart of it was the burning thirst of Jesus for love and for souls. Jesus kept on repeating: "Will you refuse?" As we quietly, and less dramatically receive our call, do we refuse Him? Do we need all the details, the complete picture, and require no suffering before we act? Or do we imitate Mary and place our trust completely in His guidance? Come Holy Spirit, Living in Mary: Help me to find the love of the Heart of Jesus hidden in the darkness.

MONDAY

Mother Theresa recognized Jesus' thirst for souls and even in her darkness, did her best to fill it. Do we? Come Holy Spirit living in Mary...Help me listen to Jesus' thirst.

TUESDAY

When Mother Theresa received her call from God, she later said that if the Blessed Mother had not been with her that day, she would not have known what "I thirst" meant for her. Mary keeps us company is all our holy efforts. Do we know she is there? Do we take advantage of it? Come, Holy Spirit, living in Mary...Bring me face to face with the love in the Heart of Jesus.

WEDNESDAY

For Mother Theresa, consecration to Mary meant two things expressed by these prayers: "Lend me your heart" and "Keep me in your most pure heart." Come Holy Spirit, living in Mary...Keep me in her most pure and Immaculate Heart.

THURSDAY

Despite all the challenges, burdens, difficulties and inconveniences, how did Mother Theresa stay sensitive to her mission? Two things: She pondered things in her heart like Mary did, and she examined her conscience every night. Come Holy Spirit living in Mary...Help me to recognize and ponder in my heart all the good you do for me.

FRIDAY

Mother Theresa took her consecration seriously. If she gave her word, she stood by it. She was overheard telling Jesus: "I have never refused you anything." Can we say that? Come Holy Spirit, living in Mary...Help me to ardently make a Covenant of Consecration with Mary.

SATURDAY

How do we console Jesus? Mother Theresa says: Be apostles of Joy. We join the joy that Mary consoles us with, and that consoles Jesus. Be JOYFUL! Come Holy Spirit, living in Mary...Help me to "be the one" who consoles Jesus through Mary.

Questions From the Annals of Catechism Classes:

“Why is that prayer we say at Mass every week called the ‘Nicene Creed’?”

Technically, it should probably be called the “Nicene-Constantineopolitan Creed”, since the version we recite today originated at the Council of Nicaea but was approved in amplified form during the Council of Constantinople in 381.

The Council of Nicaea was the very first ecumenical council ever called (“convoked”), in the year 325. The Emperor Constantine summoned the bishops to the city of Nicaea for a council to discuss something called the “Arian Heresy”.

A priest by the name of Arius, influenced greatly by Greek philosophical thinking, had written a treatise stating that Jesus was the greatest of all men, but was not Himself truly God. In the Western Catholic Church the thoughts of Arius were not taken seriously, but in the East they were circulated by some influential rulers and began to cause major problems for the Catholic Church. As early as 320, St. Alexander, the bishop of Alexandria, had called together a council of 100 bishops from Egypt and Libya to discuss what should be done about Arius.

The Council of Nicaea (which was opened and attended by the Emperor himself) heard testimony from many sources (including Arius himself). Arius’ arguments were considered very seriously, and the bishops were very careful in their deliberations (although you can find out for yourself what St. Nicholas did to Arius during the council).

The council dealt with some other issues, too. These included a controversy over the proper date to celebrate Easter and a fallen-away sect called the Meletians. But the major outcome of the Council of Nicaea was the drafting of a “formula” - a statement of what we as Catholics believe, absolutely and without question:

“We believe in God, the Father Almighty...”

And what happened to Arius? Arius and his writings were branded as “anathema”, his books were cast into a fire, and he was exiled to Illyria. “Anathema Maranatha” is a major form of excommunication, and is delivered with great solemnity by a formal ceremony, in which (among other things) the person so named is “delivered...to Satan to mortify his body, that his soul may be saved on the day of judgment.”

Very serious stuff, but also (per the Catholic Encyclopedia): The Church, animated by the spirit of God, does not wish the death of the sinner, but rather that he be converted and live. This explains why the most severe and terrifying formulas of excommunication, containing all the rigors of the Maranatha have, as a rule, clauses like this: “Unless he becomes repentant, or gives satisfaction, or is corrected”.
